Please do not forget that the school will be closed on Thursday 4th May, 2006 to coincide with Polling Day – this will be used as our staff training day.

Book Fair

Thank you to everyone who supported the Book Fair – we have used the commission raised to purchase over £430 of new books for our Library.

SAT's / QCA Tests

The SAT's and QCA tests will start on the Monday of week beginning 8th May, and will probably last for about two weeks. Please make sure that your child does not miss any school during this time, as these tests are an important indicator in connection with your child's progress.

Crossing Patrol Lady

Many of you may well remember that 'Betty Peterson' had been our Crossing Patrol Lady for many years. It is with sadness that we learnt that she died a few weeks ago. She will be sadly missed, as she always visited the school when it was concert time. She was involved with our school travel plan, and her contribution to the school was always valued.

Road Safety

Our Site Agent, Mrs. Barker, is still noticing too many people are stopping to drop off/collect children on the yellow zig zag lines. This practice is very dangerous for the children, and is also illegal.

LOST PROPERTY

On Friday 31st March,

Ian Black
Headteacher
